From Jane, for our prayers:

This March we plunge ever closer to the starkness of Holy Week. We pray that many will take that journey with us this year, that many will be touched by the Love that stopped at nothing and made even death lay down its arms. We bring with us on that journey those who suffer and look for healing of body and soul. May they know there is nothing to be afraid of because perfect love casts out fear, and you are Perfect Love. God of March, Lord of the year, lead us through to Easter with faith, hope and love. Amen.
